

The world's leading bartender school

As an international company, translation is of crucial importance for us to deliver consistent material across all of our markets. With this in mind, we are looking for interns who understand the basics of marketing but also have an eye for translation. The internship consists of assisting your Market Leader to create, schedule and maintain your native marketing content across various online sales platforms such as websites, brochures, blogs, PR, and social media. As our Local Market Intern, your working hours will be 09:00-18:00 from Monday-Thursday and 09:00-16:00 on Friday. You will also need to bring your own laptop, however you will be provided with a computer screen.

About EBS:

European Bartender School are a market leader in the bartending industry. Our mission is to educate exceptional bartenders from all over the world; making the world taste better, one cocktail at a time. With three global offices and a dedicated team of professionals, we have trained over 50,000 bartenders from across the globe in the past 16 years. Due to continuous expansion of our organisation and workforce we are looking to fill the position described above.

As part of our marketing efforts we maintain more than 15 websites and a variety of social media channels across all of our markets. Communicating through these channels requires a continuous flow of quality blogs, campaigns, emails, press releases, web pages and other relevant bartender content on a native level. All of our content is produced in-house and needs to communicate our visual identity and abide by corporate guidelines.

We can offer the opportunity of a future within EBS for those who contribute to our growth and always work with our company motto in mind: 'hard work, spirit and soul'. This is your opportunity to work in one of the fastest growing companies in the travel and education industries and live in one of the most cultural cities in the world!

Key Responsibilities:

- Translate a variation of texts from English to your native language
- Proofread a variation of texts created by EBS schools, bloggers and other sources in your native language
- Support the members of EBS CARE regarding your local market
- Write copy for the EBS website and social media channels. You will have to adjust your texts in accordance to the target market and tone of voice

Personal Requirements:

- Spoken and written English to an extremely high standard
- Bachelor's degree or close to graduation in marketing, creative writing, copywriting or a similar field
- A desire to learn and grow professionally
- Experience with the Office Package, especially Word and Excel
- Experience with blogging or other forms of publishing are a big plus

What You'll Receive:

- A salary of 300€ per month
- A young and dynamic working environment
- Company paid snacks and coffee/tea
- Company paid events and trips
- Free weekly Spanish classes and training boot camp
- Casual dress code and an in-office music system

Life at EBS:

At EBS, we offer our employees a unique and energetic working environment that you won't find anywhere else! Our offices are created to provide you with a vibrant, positive and motivated setting to maximise creativity. Working as part of our international

The world's
leading bartender school

team means you will experience new cultures and may even pick up a few new phrases along the way. Joining EBS means you'll have the opportunity to grow both professionally and personally, have an incredible experience abroad and make money at the same time.

How To Apply:

Email your CV and motivational cover letter in English, with the subject line; 'Local Market Intern', including a photograph of yourself to: **hr.ebscare@barschool.net**