

Are you interested in working in an environment that combines the dynamic of a modern Start-Up with the expertise of a multinational enterprise? Are you looking for an opportunity to implement your own ideas and experience in order to contribute to the development of a fast growing company?

Then myDriver is the right place for you!

myDriver is the new and innovative chauffeur service from Sixt, the international provider of high-quality mobility solutions. Following the successes of Sixt-Ventures like DriveNow or Autohaus24, myDriver combines quality and security with an outstanding price/performance ratio. Therefore, it is the comfortable and favorable taxi alternative. myDriver is already available throughout Germany, and is currently expanding into many other countries worldwide.

Are you interested to be a part of myDrivers success story by supporting us expanding? Then apply now for a position at our office in Berlin as

Intern (m/f) for International Business Development Poland (myDriver)

Your tasks:

- Active participation in all areas of the organization in direct collaboration with our Co-Founders and the management team
- You will be supporting us with the definition of new functionalities and the optimization of business processes
- As part of the internship, you will be responsible for independent projects and given the opportunity to make an important contribution to the development of a young company
- Your main focus will be to support the head of internationalization to expand the business abroad

Your Qualifications

- You are still studying in International Business, Economics or similar subjects and are looking for an internship for 3-6 months
- You are a candidate who possesses a strong desire to work in an emerging industry
- You are extremely ambitious, highly motivated and would like to work as part of an internationally successful team
- You are fluent in Polish and English, additional a basic knowledge of German is a plus

What is in for you?

- An exceptional working environment: comprised of small, self-motivated teams taking on individual responsibilities, together with direct interpersonal dialogue and cooperation from the management
- We offer diverse, stimulating criteria of work, together with a start-up, informal atmosphere and a young, professional international team
- We value and encourage your own unique creativity, initiative and organizational skills as an integral participant in the growth of an international, dynamic start-up

Are you ready for a new challenge? Then please apply via job@mydriver.com under registration code MD_IBD_PL_02/16_Erasmus.